METHODOLOGY

The Glengariff Group, Inc. conducted a Michigan statewide survey of November 2020 likely general election voters. The 600 sample, live operator telephone survey was conducted on January 14-18, 2020 and has a margin of error of +/-4.0% with a 95% level of confidence. 62.0% of respondents were contacted via landline telephone. 38.0% of respondents were contacted via cell phone telephone. This survey was commissioned by the Detroit Regional Chamber.

KEY FINDINGS

Washington Dominates Most Important Issue Facing the Nation

- Voters were asked in an open-ended question, what is the most important issue facing the nation:
 - 15.2% of voters said President Trump and his Impeachment were the most important issue.
 - 12.5% of voters said jobs and the economy.
 - 10.0% of voters said access to health care.
 - 9.0% of voters said the political divide in the nation.
 - 8.8% of voters said the possibility of war.
- 31.8% of Strong Democratic voters said President Trump was the most important issue facing the nation. While 20.0% of Strong Republican voters said the political divide in the nation was the most important issue.
 - But among Independent voters, 13.5% said jobs and the economy and 12.8% said health care.
 - The top issue among African American voters at 23.1% was the possibility of war. Voters aged 18-29 also said the possibility of war was the most pressing issue in the nation.

It's a 401K Economy

- By a margin of 62.2%-26.7%, Michigan voters believe the national economy is on the right track.
- Voters were asked if the economy is better today than it was four years ago:
 - 51.2% said it was better.
 - 28.8% said it was the same.
 - 16.2% said it was worse.

- But there were major differences based on whether or not the household had a 401K.
 - For households with a 401K, 57.8% said the economy was better, 28.3% said it was the same and 10.5% said it was worse.
 - But for households without a 401K, only 36.8% said it was better, 30.5% said it was the same, and 27.4% said it was worse.
- Voters were asked if their household finances were better today than they were four years ago.
 - 42.0% said their finances were the same.
 - 38.3% said their finances were better.
 - 17.3% said their finances were worse.
 - But again, there were major differences based on whether the household had a 401K.
 - 46.5% of households with a 401K said their finances were better while only 24.2% of households without a 401K said their finances were better.

Benefits of Free Trade Agreements Split Michigan Voters

- By a margin of 39.2%-27.7%, Michigan voters believe our current trade policy with China is hurting the nation's economy. 33.2% of voters simply do not know.
- Voters were asked if the current China trade strategy would be good, bad or have no effect on Michigan's economy:
 - 31.0% said it was good
 - 27.0% said it was bad
 - 12.5% said it would have no effect
 - 29.5% just did not know.

- 63.0% of Strong Republican voters believe the strategy is good for Michigan. Independents were split at 25%-25%. Strong Democratic voters believe the strategy is bad for Michigan by a margin of 43.9% -13.3%.
- Voters were read two different statements about trade and asked which one they agree with more:
 - 43.7% said free trade agreements between countries put Michigan at a disadvantage with poorer countries who don't pay their workers as much and cost Michigan jobs.
 - 39.5% said free trade agreements between countries are good for Michigan's economy and help our businesses and farmer prosper.
 - The strongest opposition to free trade agreements by party affiliation came from Independent voters at 51.4% and Leaning Republican voters at 50.3%.
 - 44.3% of union households said free trade agreements were a disadvantage while 43.4% of non-union households said free trade agreements were a disadvantage.
 - In out-state Michigan voters believe free trade agreements are an advantage by a margin of 42.3%-36.8%. But in Metro Detroit they believe free trade agreements are a disadvantage by a margin of 47.6%-36.8%.

Voters with Private and Employer Health Insurance Overwhelmingly Satisfied With Their Insurance

- Voters were asked if they had health insurance and if so what kind of insurance they had:
 - 4.0% said they had no coverage
 - 56.3% said they had employer provided coverage.
 - 8.0% said they paid for private coverage.
 - 20.2% said they had Medicare.
 - 9.0% said they had Medicaid.
- While 61.2% of white voters said they had employee coverage, only 33.3% of African American voters said they had employee coverage.

- Voters with employee and private coverage were asked if they were satisfied or unsatisfied with their health insurance.
 - 75.1% of voters with employee/private coverage are satisfied with their coverage. 43.0% are very satisfied and 32.1% are somewhat satisfied. 22.0% are not satisfied with their coverage.

Voters Choose Moderate Options on Health Care/ Across the Board Agreement on Pre-Existing Conditions

- Voters were read four different options about our nation’s health care system and asked which they supported the most:
 - 35.8% We should expand the existing Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, to give anyone the option to purchase their health coverage through Medicare. This is known as Medicare for All who want it.
 - 20.2% We should make some changes to the Affordable Care Act but we shouldn’t go beyond that.
 - 20.0% We should create one Medicare for All system in which everyone has the same health insurance plan and private insurance would not be required.
 - 8.5% We should leave the system alone. It is working fine and there is really nothing wrong with it.
- Among Strong Democratic voters, 51.4% chose Medicare for All that want it, while 23.1% chose Medicare for All.
- The lowest support percentage for Medicare for All came among Strong Republican voters (8.1%), union households (13.1%) and African American voters at 14.1%.
- The strongest support for ‘Medicare for All that want it’ came from African American voters (59.0%) and Strong Democratic voters (51.4%).
- 21.5% of Strong Republican voters said we should leave the health care system alone. 27.4% chose minor reforms to the A.C.A.

- Among Independent voters 33.1% chose Medicare for All that want it, 26.4% chose Medicare for all, 22.3% said minor reform to the ACA, and only 6.1% said leave the system alone.
- Voters with private/employer provided health insurance were asked if they would support or oppose Medicare for All if they knew it meant they would give up their existing coverage. By a margin of 51.6%-38.9%, these voters said they opposed Medicare for All.
 - While 23.1% would strongly support giving up their coverage, 36.8% strongly opposed giving up their coverage.
 - Union households with employer/private insurance would oppose giving up their coverage by a margin of 49.7%-36.9%.
- By a margin of 94.6%-3.9%, Michigan voters nearly unanimously agree that health insurance companies should be required to cover people with pre-existing conditions.
 - 80.3% of voters STRONGLY SUPPORT requiring coverage for pre existing conditions.

Michigan: It's Still All About the Roads

- By a wide margin, 29.5% of Michigan voters ranked roads and bridges as the most important issue facing the nation.
