METHODOLOGY

The Glengariff Group, Inc. conducted a Michigan statewide survey of likely August 2022 Republican Primary voters. The 500 sample, live operator telephone survey was conducted on April 29-May 1, 2022 and has a margin of error of +/-4.4% with a 95% level of confidence. 40.0% of respondents were contacted via landline telephone. 60.0% of respondents were contacted via cell phone telephone. This survey was commissioned by the Detroit Regional Chamber.

KEY FINDINGS

TRUMP EXTREMELY POPULAR – ENDORSEMENT WILL HAVE A MAJOR INFLUENCE ON VOTERS

- * Former President Donald Trump is viewed favorably by likely Republican primary voters by a margin of 81.0% favorable to 9.8% unfavorable. 8.0% have no opinion of him.

98.6% of ‘Trump Republicans’ view him favorably while 70.7% of ‘Classic Republicans’ view him favorably. 16.3% of ‘Classic Republicans’ view him unfavorably while 11.7% have no opinion of him.

- * Likely voters were asked whether an endorsement from Donald Trump would be important or not important in determining how they voted in the Gubernatorial primary. 57.0% said a Trump endorsement is important while 42.6% said an endorsement was not important.

28.4%	Very important
28.6%	Somewhat important
14.2%	Not very important
28.4%	Not important at all

83.3% of ‘Trump Republicans’ said the endorsement was important. Among ‘Classic Republicans’, 44.5% said the endorsement was important while 55.5% said a Trump endorsement was not important.

61.6% of evangelical Republican primary voters said the endorsement was important to them compared to 51.6% of non-evangelical Republican primary voters.

64.6% of social conservative voters said the Trump endorsement is important compared to 48.0% of fiscal conservative voters.

Among those voters who will be most persuaded by a Trump endorsement are primary voters over the age of 65; 64.3% said the endorsement is important to them while 35.6% said the endorsement is not important – 36.2% of older voters said the Trump endorsement is ‘VERY IMPORTANT’ to their decision.

FIVE CANDIDATES ABOVE 25% NAME IDENTIFICATION; CRAIG LEADS NAME ID AT 50.6%

- * Respondents were read the names in rotated order of all ten Republican primary candidates that have submitted signatures for the ballot. They were asked if they had heard or that person, and if yes did they have a favorable or unfavorable opinion of that person.

James Craig has the highest name identification at 50.6%. Perry Johnson, Ryan Kelley, Kevin Rinke and Garrett Soldano all had name identification above 25.0% among likely GOP primary voters.
